Mr. Volle,

Thank you for your message to Burien City Council. Your message will be forwarded to Councilmembers and included in Correspondence for the Record in an upcoming meeting.

Two public hearings are scheduled so that the Council may hear from residents and business owners regarding the City's 2010 revenues sources (including the 2010 property tax levy) and budgeted expenditures. The first one on November 9 and the second hearing on November 23, during regularly scheduled Council meetings. If you are interested, here is a link to the Council meeting materials for Monday night <http://www.burienwa.gov/archives/30/110909a.pdf>, you will find materials on the 2010 Budget review starting on page 47.

Dear Council,

What is this talk of a possible increase in property taxes? Are you awake? Are you kidding me? This kind of talk is ridiculous. It's time to roll up your sleeves and cut costs just like everyone else. How can you have a sustainable city, if you can't control your own spending? Values are way down, people are losing their jobs, and the City of Burien wants to raise taxes? The city needs to be in line with the people, and cut spending.

Please be responsible and do the right thing.

Kind regards,

-Brent Volle
